

Your Great Comeback: How to Recover from Disappointments, Defeat and Derailments

KEYNOTE SPEAKER: Christie Browning

Christie Browning is on a mission to encourage, empower and inspire others to uncover their purpose and live it with passion. She is a TEDx speaker, an award-winning writer and the author of 7 books. Christie publishes "Revision Magazine" a quarterly motivational publication for women and hosts the "Live Revised" podcast each week.

She speaks at motivational events all across the U.S. and is the Owner and Founder of Revision Motivational Company. Christie's "live revised" mantra has compelled followers to uncover their purpose, live life with passion, and embrace new opportunities while fighting to be free from past mistakes, failures and disappointments. Be warned...Christie will shake you up and leave you motivated to live a bigger, bolder, brighter life. Browning is an active member of ABWA's Women of Magnitude Express Network and serves as Vice President of Communications. Originally from Memphis, Tennessee, Christie now lives in Indiana with her husband, her stepson, and their two dogs.

Join us to hear Christie Browning share her journey and learn why and how we all can work toward achieving our GREAT COMEBACK!

There's no getting around it. Life is full of disappointments, defeat and derailments, and we all experience them. However, there's a real differentiator between those who let these circumstances keep them down and those that use the setback to build up for their greatest comeback.

In this interactive presentation, award-winning speaker and writer Christie Browning will share practical and tactical ways to not only prepare a great comeback but to see life's circumstances as a positive training ground for what's to come. With her own brand of humor, story-telling and real-life perspective, you not only be motivated and inspired to push ahead, but also be equipped with tools and how-tos to create your own great comeback.

Read more about Christie's work, mission, and happenings at www.christiebrowning.com.

You can also follow her on Facebook and Instagram: @christiebrowningofficial.